

Name _____ Date _____

SOCIAL STUDIES DAILY REVIEW QUIZ #23

1. Fred works at a college where he teaches about ancient Mali. He says that most of what we know about Mali comes from its oral history that was handed down by—
- powerful kings.
 - librarians.
 - storytellers.
 - Greek myths.

2. Do you remember who they were? Match.

- | | |
|----------------------------|--|
| _____ a. Eleanor Roosevelt | 1. Mexican American who helped farm workers |
| _____ b. Powhatan | 2. Volunteer for many organizations and a leader for equal rights |
| _____ c. Thurgood Marshall | 3. Ruler of many Indian tribes when settlers first came to Jamestown |
| _____ d. César Chávez | 4. First African American justice of the U. S. Supreme Court |

3. Help Oliver find his way. Use intermediate directions.

- _____ a. from Mali to Egypt
 _____ b. from Greece to Mali
 _____ c. from Rome to Egypt
 _____ d. from Egypt to Spain

What tool is Oliver most likely holding in his hand? _____

What sea would he cross to get from Egypt to Greece? _____

4. Saul just returned to the Sahara Desert from his trip to West Africa. What did he most likely trade for while he was there?

- | | |
|---------|-----------|
| a. gold | c. salt |
| b. corn | d. silver |

What was a natural resource from the Sahara? _____

What was a natural resource from West Africa? _____

What a great trading trip to Mali! A trader's life is the one for me!

5. What was the name of the important trading center in Mali that had a famous library filled with Greek and Roman books?

- Alexandria
- Athens
- Timbuktu
- Rome

